Before Shri H. D. Kainthla, Presiding Officer, Labour Court for State of Himachal Pradesh (Circuit at Sunder Nagar) H P.

Application No. 75 of 1978.
Instituted on 9-7-1978.
Decided on 21-1-1981.

Shri Buta Singh, Driver, HRTC (Himachal Road Transport Corporation), Local Unit, Simla ... Applicant.

Versus

The General Manager, Himachal Road Transport Corporation, Simla (H. P.) ... Respondent.

APPLICATION UNDER SECTION 33-C (2) INDUSTRIAL DISPUTE ACT

Order

The applicant is a driver in H. R. T. C. at Simla made this petition claiming amount of Rs. 495-80P. for over time work done for 236.50 hours at the rate of Rs. 2.10 per hour. This overtime work claim relates to Dharamsala Depot of the H. R. T. C. covering the period from October, 1975 to April, 1977.

2. The respondent H. R. T. C. contested this claim on the ground that the applicant has been paid for this over time period work under the rules from October, 1975 to March, 1976. Thereafter 20 days compensatory leave in lieu of 162 hours over time work was credited to the applicant. Again from April, 1976 to April, 1977 for 74 hours of over time work 9 days compensatory leave was credited to the account of the applicant. So no monetary claim is due to the applicant.

3. The applicant filed replication that the respondent could not convert the over time dues into compensatory leave. That it was illegal.

4. The following issues were framed to settle the matter in dispute between the parties :—

- (1) Whether the applicant was given compensatory leave of 29 days against the over time work of 236 hrs. work done by him ? O. P. R.
- (2) Whether under rules and law the applicant could not be given compensatory leave in lieu of these over time hrs. work done by him ? O. P. D.
- (3) Relief.

Findings on the Issues :

Issue No. 1

5. The applicant stated that he had objected for his over time period being adjusted towards compensatory leave per writing Ex. P1, dated 5-7-77 to the Assistant Manager, Simla Local Unit and that he had thereafter applied for the months earned leave per application Ex. P2 dated 24-11-77.

6. This over time claim petition has been made before this Court in July, 1978. The applicant has admitted that he had availed 30 days leave from 5-1-78 to 3-2-78 and that he was not sure without looking into the record if he had availed leave from 20-5-77 to 11-7-77 and from 12-9-77 to 3-11-77. The applicant is believably by his own earlier applications Ex. R1 to R3 Ex. B1 is an application for leave made in June, 1977 that the over time work period standing to his credit may be used for giving him compensatory leave as he was already on leave from 20-5-77 and wanted further leave. The noting of this application shows that 20 days compensatory leave was allowed and adjusted.

7. Ex. R2 is the leave application dated 20-5-77 asking for 46 days leave by the applicant Buta Singh. Ex. R3 is application for leave from 11-9-77 to 17-9-77.

8. Ex. R4 is the copy of item No. 54 of the proceedings of the review meeting held at Simla on 28th & 29th January, 1980. These are instructions governing the working of the employees in respect of rest and leave. It says that it was decided that earned/casual leave should be allowed only after the rests are fully availed by the crew members. From the above it is clear that the applicant has availed compensatory leave in lieu of the over time work done by him.

Issue No. 2

9. The applicant has failed to show any rule or legal provision that the respondent could not convert over time work period into compensatory leave.

Issue No. 3

10. The result from the above discussion is that the applicant's claim fails and is hereby dismissed. No order regarding costs.

Announced.

Dated: 21st January, 1981.

H. D. KAINTHLA,
Presiding Officer, Labour Court for
State of Himachal Pradesh
Circuit at Sunder Nagar (H. P.).

NOTIFICATION

Simla-1, the 17th March, 1982

No. HHC/Admn. (22) 19/82-2265.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sections 122 and 129 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, and section 7 of the Delhi High Court Act, 1966 and all other powers enabling it in this behalf, the High Court of Himachal Pradesh hereby makes the following rules as amendments to the Delhi High Court (Original Side) Rules, 1967, as applicable to the High Court of Himachal Pradesh.

1. Short title and commencement.—These rules may be called the Delhi High Court (Original Side 1st H.P. Amendment) Rules, 1981.

(2) These rules shall come into force with immediate effect.

3. The present Rule 2 of Chapter II shall be substituted as under:—

2.—A Judge before whom any suit, application or other proceeding, interlocutory or otherwise, is pending may, if he thinks fit, before it or any question of law practice or procedure arising therein to the Chief Justice for constituting a Bench of two or more Judges to decide the same. If only a questions has been referred, the Judge shall, after receipt of a copy of the judgement of the Bench so constituted, proceed to dispose of such suit, application or proceeding in conformity therewith.

4. The present clauses (3) and (29) of Rule 3 of Chapter II shall be deleted and substituted by the following:—

(3) Applications for issuance of commissions to examine witnesses.

(29) Summoning witnesses and taking proceedings against them for failure to comply therewith as provided in Order 16 of the Code.

5. The following clause shall be added after clause 43 of Rule 3 of Chapter II:

(44) Any matter which in accordance with orders or directions issued by the court is required to be dealt with by the Registrar.

6. In Chapter II, after Rule 3, the following rule shall be added:—

3-A. All applications except those in which urgent ex parte orders are sought, will be placed before the Registrar in the first instance. He will dispose of such of them as he is empowered to do, and as regards the rest may call for replies and rejoinders and take such other steps as are necessary to make them ready for hearing, before listing them before the court.

7. The present Rule 5 of Chapter III shall be deleted and substituted by the following:—

5 (1) No document in a language other than English intended to be used in any proceeding before the court shall be received by the Registry unless it is accompanied by a translation in English,

- (i) agreed to by both the parties; or
- (ii) certified to be a true translation:

(a) by a counsel engaged in the cases; or

(b) by any other counsel whether engaged in the cases or not, provided a counsel engaged in the case authenticates such certificates; or

(iii) prepared by an official translator of the court on payment of the prescribed charges; or

(iv) prepared by a translator specially appointed or approved for the purpose by the Registrar on payment of such charges as he may order.

(2) A suit or other proceeding will not be set down for hearing until and unless all parties confirm that all the documents filed on which they intend to rely are in English or have been translated into English.

8. In Chapter X the present Rules 1 and 2 shall be deleted and substituted by the following:—

(a) Applications for issuance of commissions to examine witnesses shall be made by the parties within 30 days from the date of settlement of issues and shall be supported by an affidavit disclosing the nature of the evidence each of the witness is expected to give. If the witnesses are sought to be examined on interrogatories, the interrogatories will be submitted along with the application. Copies of such applications, affidavit and interrogatories shall be served on the opposit party in advance.

(b) No application for the issuance of such commission shall be entertained after the suit or matter has been set down for trial unless the court is satisfied that the application could not have been made earlier, and in that event the court may make such order as to costs or otherwise as it deems fit.

2 (a) If the opposite party objects to the issuance of the commission, he shall file a reply supported by an affidavit within 10 days of the service on him of the aforesaid documents. The application with the reply, if any, shall thereupon be placed before the court for orders.

(b) If the application is allowed and the order be for the examination of the witnesses on interrogatories, the opposite party shall file cross interrogatories within 10 days of the date of the order and serve copies thereof on the other party, who shall, within 7 days thereafter, file re-interrogatories, if any. The matter will then be placed before the court for final orders, and the objections, if any, to the cross interrogatories and re-interrogatories will be disposed of.

9. In Rule 1 (a) of Chapter XI, for the figure "5" after the word "rule" substitute the figure "4".

10. In place of the present rule 7 in Chapter XIII, the following rules shall be substituted:—

7(1) Judgements may be either oral or written.

(2) When the court delivers an oral judgement, it shall be taken down by the short hand writer. A transcript shall then be prepared for correction by the Judge or Judges who delivered the Judgement. A fair copy of the transcript so corrected shall be signed by the Judge or Judges and dated with the date of delivery and shall be the record of the judgement.

7(3) When any suit or matter is heard by two or more Judges:

(i) if they have agreed to a written judgement and signed it, one of them may pronounce the judgement in the absence of the other or others;

(ii) if any one or more of them have written separate judgements, one of them may pronounce the judgements written and signed by the other or others in his or their absence.

7 (B) Where a written judgement is to be pronounced it shall be sufficient if the findings of the court on each issue and the final order passed in the case are read out, and it shall not be necessary for the court to read out the whole judgement; but a copy of the whole judgement shall be made available to the parties or their counsel for perusal immediately after the judgement is pronounced.

11. The present rule 12 of Chapter 15 shall be deleted and substituted by the following:—

12. The provision of order 37 of Civil Procedure Code as amended by the Civil Procedure Code (Amendment Act) 1976, so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions contained in this Chapter, shall apply to the suits to which this Chapter applies.

12. The present Chapter XX shall be deleted and substituted by the following:—

1. Security Summons (a).—Subject to any directions given by the court, where security is ordered to be given to the satisfaction of the Registrar, the party ordered to give security shall take out a summons within 14 days of the date of the order and shall serve the same upon the opposite party.

(b) The summons shall state the name and address of each surety to be tendered and a full and sufficient description of the property to be given as surety.

2. Affidavit of justification.—(a) Simultaneously, every person offering himself as a surety shall make and file an affidavit of justification touching the value of his property and the debts and liabilities to which it is subject and also a draft of the bond proposed to be given. Copies of affidavits and the draft bond will be served along with the summons on the opposite party.

(b) Affidavits of justification shall be deemed insufficient unless they state that each person justifying is worth the amount required, over and above what will pay his just debts and over and above every other sum for which he is then surety.

3. Time for inquiry.—Unless time be extended by the Court, the Registrar shall allow or disallow the surety within sixty days of the date of the order requiring surety.

4. (i) Production of title deeds etc. and examination.—Every person offering himself as surety, shall produce before the Registrar all the title deeds, vouchers and other relevant and necessary documents on the day fixed for his examination. Such person may be examined by the Registrar on oath or solemn affirmation touching the value of his property, and the debts and liabilities to which it is subject. After being examined and allowed, he shall sign the requisite bond and shall deposit his title deeds, vouchers and such other documents as the Registrar may require:

Provided that in any case the Registrar may, on good cause shown, dispense with the deposit of some or all of the said document and may return the same to the surety with an endorsement as follows :—

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Take notice that the property to which this document relates stands charged for the payment of a sum of Rs. .... by a bond executed on ..... day of ..... 19....., by ..... in suit No. .... of 19..... entitled pending in the High Court of Himachal Pradesh.

(ii) The endorsement referred to in the proviso to sub-rule (i) shall be cancelled by the Registrar when the Surety is or stands discharged.

5. Property in respect of which surety may justify.—The title deeds may relate to immovable property situate beyond the local limits of the ordinary jurisdiction of the court, but shall in all cases be in the name of the proposed surety. A surety may justify also in respect of movable property, of which he can produce evidence satisfactory to the Registrar, such as deposit receipts, Government promissory notes or other evidence of title.

6. More than two sureties irregular.—A tender of notice of more than two sureties shall not be accepted except by order of the court.

7. Who may be present at the examination.—Except with the specific permission of the Registrar no person other than the party giving security, the sureties and their respective Advocates, the party or parties, if any, or, Advocates, shall be present at the examination of any surety by the Registrar.

8. Who are not competent sureties.—Unless the court otherwise orders, an Advocate practising within the limits of the jurisdiction of the court, a clerk of such Advocate or an officer of the court, shall not be accepted as surety.

9. Security for costs.—If a party is required to give security for costs, unless the court otherwise orders, the penal sum in the bond shall not be less than one thousand rupees.

10. Custody of securities and security bonds.—All papers and records relating to the taking of security, including securities and security bonds, shall be kept by the Registrar in safe custody in his safe in the strong room after making an appropriate entry in a register to be maintained by him for the purpose.

By order etc,
R. L. KHURANA,
Registrar.
